

CLASSIFIED SECTION

FOR SALE
Romeo cigarette lighters. Gold filled sets. Ladies and men's sterling silver identification bracelets. All types of watch bands, compacts, necklaces, Simmons gold filled watch chains. Novelty and Everette extension neckties.
WILKES JEWELERS
Appomattox, Va.
(11-21-34p)

FLASH! Just received shipment of HEAT-ILATOR for your open fireplace. Ask an owner that has one, he'll tell you "how delightful" they are. Waterproof your cement or plaster block home, with "Famous AQU-ELLA" $3.95 per gallon. See us for "MAR-LITE TILE-BOARD," comes in several colors, and we have a stock of "metal molding" and "PANY LYNCHBURG" (11-21-40c)

NOTICE: No hunting allowed on my property, three miles west of Pamplin.
W. C. Anderson.
(11-21-11p)

NOTICE
No hunting allowed on our lands 1 1/2 miles southwest of Appomattox.
T. W. and W. P. Odor
(11-21-11p)

For Sale: 2 brood sows, OIC white, due to farrow in 30 days.
Allie C. Clemen.
(11-21-11p) Spout Spring, Va.

Refrigeration Service, Any make or model. Orders taken for New Refrigerators.
A. C. Tweedy, Refrigerator Sales and Service, Lynchburg, Va. Phone 2924.
(11-21-40p)

Wanted To Buy: Used Electric Refrigerators and Washing Machine. Any make or model. Highest prices paid. Phone or write.
A. C. Tweedy, Rustburg, Va. Phone 2924.
(11-21-40p)

Just Received
A Shipment of
PLUMBING SUPPLIES
HOT WATER TANKS
ELECTRIC PUMPS
GALVANIZED PIPES
BATH TUBS ETC.
Call me for any Plumbing and Heating repairs.
E. D. TEGETHOFF,
Phone 1492
(8-8-40c)

Complete Beauty Course $100.00
Girls or Boys, married or single—Graduate in three months. Diploma given. No high school education necessary. Students also accepted under G. I. Bill of Rights. Mayfair College of Beauty Culture, Lynchburg, Va. (11-21-15c)

For Sale: 25 White Rock hens, 1 year old and 4 cockers. Also 40 bantam eggs at $5.00.
L. P. Smith.
(11-21-15c)

Wanted: A tenant for 1947. House, tractor, farm machinery, horse, furnished.
James Gibson.
(Berk Farm) Route 2, Appomattox. (11-21-21p)

Engine Rebuilding
Tractor, Truck, Stationary
JOHN P. HUGHES MOTOR CO.
INC.
Lynchburg, Virginia
Telephone 5979
(11-21-40c)

One Upright Piano will be sold at Rock Church, Nov. 23, at 2:30 P. M., at public auction.
H. F. Martin, trustee, Rock Church, Appomattox, Va.
(11-21-21p)

Order of Publication
VIRGINIA:
In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Appomattox County, on the 15th day of November, 1946, Graver Cleveland Stephens, Plaintiff, Against
Marshall Stephens, Robert L. Stephens, R. Harris Stephens, Ernest J. Stephens, Rachel E. Rogers and Others, Defendants.
The object of the suit is to have partition of real estate owned by George P. Stephens, at the time of his death in Appomattox County, Va.
And it appearing by affidavit filed that Rachel E. Rogers is not a resident of Virginia, she is hereby required to appear within ten days after the publication of this order and do what is necessary to protect her interests.
Test: C. W. Smith, Clerk.
W. M. Abbott, p. q.
(11-21-40c)

NOTICE:
We will be closed Thursday, November 28, for Thanksgiving Holiday.
THE CLEANERS
BABY CHICKS: Barred Rocks, Hampshire Rocks, or Red Rock Crosses. Postpaid. Shipped direct from the Hatchery to you under official label. Prompt or future shipment. Address:
SEELY'S MARKET
Norfolk 10, Va.
(8-22-40c)

Highest prices paid for all grades scrap iron, metals, rags and junk. Secure our prices before selling. Lynchburg Iron and Metal Co., East 1/4 and Kemper St., Lynchburg, Va. (11-21-40c)

Wanted: Lepseliza seed to combine with new machine.
S. S. Shouse
(11-21-21p)

For Sale: White enameled kitchen range for coal or wood, with water tank. Good condition.
Mrs. S. S. Shouse.
(11-21-21p)

NOTICE
NO HUNTING ALLOWED ON MY FARM. I HAVE CATTLE IN ALL PASTURES and Therefore Ask That You Do Not Trespass.
MRS. WILLIAM PITTER GILLS
(11-21-20c)

For Sale: Baby carriage, in good condition. See Harry Williams, Pamplin, Va.
(11-21-20c)

For Sale: Baby carriage, in good condition. See Harry Williams, Pamplin, Va.
(11-21-20c)

For Sale: Baby carriage, in good condition. See Harry Williams, Pamplin, Va.
(11-21-20c)

For Sale: Baby carriage, in good condition. See Harry Williams, Pamplin, Va.
(11-21-20c)

For Sale: Baby carriage, in good condition. See Harry Williams, Pamplin, Va.
(11-21-20c)

For Sale: Baby carriage, in good condition. See Harry Williams, Pamplin, Va.
(11-21-20c)

For Sale: Baby carriage, in good condition. See Harry Williams, Pamplin, Va.
(11-21-20c)

For Sale: Baby carriage, in good condition. See Harry Williams, Pamplin, Va.
(11-21-20c)

For Sale: Baby carriage, in good condition. See Harry Williams, Pamplin, Va.
(11-21-20c)

For Sale: Baby carriage, in good condition. See Harry Williams, Pamplin, Va.
(11-21-20c)

For Sale: Baby carriage, in good condition. See Harry Williams, Pamplin, Va.
(11-21-20c)

For Sale: Baby carriage, in good condition. See Harry Williams, Pamplin, Va.
(11-21-20c)

For Sale: Baby carriage, in good condition. See Harry Williams, Pamplin, Va.
(11-21-20c)

For Sale: Baby carriage, in good condition. See Harry Williams, Pamplin, Va.
(11-21-20c)

For Sale: Baby carriage, in good condition. See Harry Williams, Pamplin, Va.
(11-21-20c)

For Sale: Baby carriage, in good condition. See Harry Williams, Pamplin, Va.
(11-21-20c)

For Sale: Baby carriage, in good condition. See Harry Williams, Pamplin, Va.
(11-21-20c)

For Sale: Baby carriage, in good condition. See Harry Williams, Pamplin, Va.
(11-21-20c)

PUBLIC SALE
I will sell at auction at the residence of the late C. L. Tolly farm located on road between Bethany and Pine Ridge, at 9:30 A. M. promptly on SAT., NOV. 23, 1946
The following articles:
One Borden
One pair young Mules
One 2-horse wagon and harness
One 2-horse harrow
One mower
One hay rack
Household furniture, canned fruit
Numerous other articles.
Terms: Cash.
Auctioneer, J. H. O'Brien.
MRS. C. L. TOLLEY

A Suggestion to Buyers of Country Hams
Ask if the Hams have been protected from Shipworms by CHAMBERS' ANTI-SHIPWORM COMPOUND.
N. J. BODDIE
The Ham Laboratory, Durham, N. C.

Communists poll largest number of votes in French election.

Body of Man Found in Two Boxes and Milk Can
SAN FRANCISCO—Identity was sought of a man whose dismembered body was found stuffed in two boxes and a milk can hidden in the dark side entrance of a motion picture theater.

The gruesome discovery was made by four boys who noticed a foul odor in the alley.

The boys said they saw two large cartons, of the type used to ship eggs, in which were a number of parcels of brown wrapping paper.

Opening one, the boys found a human foot.

They called police.

Inspectors opened several more of the parcels and found another foot, the calf of one leg and a forearm.

By piecing together the parts of the body, the coroner's office was able to determine only that it was that of a man. The head and neck are missing.

Many Monkeys Will Be Imported for Polio Study
WASHINGTON.—Plans for the large scale importation of a particular species of monkeys—described as the "only research tool which offers a reasonable hope of success in unraveling the mystery of poliomyelitis"—were announced by the National Foundation for Poliomyelitis.

Dr. H. M. Weaver, acting research director of the foundation, told a news conference the first step would be a successful expedition to the jungles of the Netherlands East Indies and the Philippine Islands.

March of Dimes Needed
Total of $15,980,000
NEW YORK.—National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis announced that the 1946 March of Dimes realized $15,980,000. Of the total, $8,184,593.80 went to the national headquarters for its program in research, education and emergency epidemic aid, and $7,795,406.20 went to local chapters for care and treatment of patients.

Russia agrees to consider modified use of veto
Rife follow post signing in Batavia.

Showed Ambassador What Iowa Land Can Do

The Newburns of Eagle Grove, Iowa, showed the British ambassador what real productivity is. One look at Iowa corn, hogs and soybeans and Sir Archibald John Clark-Kerr, that no nation on earth can rival the United States in agriculture. It all started when Roger Newburn, 21, met the ambassador in Washington on a student tour and got into a friendly argument. "Come out to the farm and see for yourself," invited Roger. Sir Archibald took him up on it, and spent three days with the Newburns. Picture shows, I. to r., Edward, Roger and Francis E. Newburn.

The Newburns of Eagle Grove, Iowa, showed the British ambassador what real productivity is. One look at Iowa corn, hogs and soybeans and Sir Archibald John Clark-Kerr, that no nation on earth can rival the United States in agriculture. It all started when Roger Newburn, 21, met the ambassador in Washington on a student tour and got into a friendly argument. "Come out to the farm and see for yourself," invited Roger. Sir Archibald took him up on it, and spent three days with the Newburns. Picture shows, I. to r., Edward, Roger and Francis E. Newburn.

The Newburns of Eagle Grove, Iowa, showed the British ambassador what real productivity is. One look at Iowa corn, hogs and soybeans and Sir Archibald John Clark-Kerr, that no nation on earth can rival the United States in agriculture. It all started when Roger Newburn, 21, met the ambassador in Washington on a student tour and got into a friendly argument. "Come out to the farm and see for yourself," invited Roger. Sir Archibald took him up on it, and spent three days with the Newburns. Picture shows, I. to r., Edward, Roger and Francis E. Newburn.

The Newburns of Eagle Grove, Iowa, showed the British ambassador what real productivity is. One look at Iowa corn, hogs and soybeans and Sir Archibald John Clark-Kerr, that no nation on earth can rival the United States in agriculture. It all started when Roger Newburn, 21, met the ambassador in Washington on a student tour and got into a friendly argument. "Come out to the farm and see for yourself," invited Roger. Sir Archibald took him up on it, and spent three days with the Newburns. Picture shows, I. to r., Edward, Roger and Francis E. Newburn.

The Newburns of Eagle Grove, Iowa, showed the British ambassador what real productivity is. One look at Iowa corn, hogs and soybeans and Sir Archibald John Clark-Kerr, that no nation on earth can rival the United States in agriculture. It all started when Roger Newburn, 21, met the ambassador in Washington on a student tour and got into a friendly argument. "Come out to the farm and see for yourself," invited Roger. Sir Archibald took him up on it, and spent three days with the Newburns. Picture shows, I. to r., Edward, Roger and Francis E. Newburn.

The Newburns of Eagle Grove, Iowa, showed the British ambassador what real productivity is. One look at Iowa corn, hogs and soybeans and Sir Archibald John Clark-Kerr, that no nation on earth can rival the United States in agriculture. It all started when Roger Newburn, 21, met the ambassador in Washington on a student tour and got into a friendly argument. "Come out to the farm and see for yourself," invited Roger. Sir Archibald took him up on it, and spent three days with the Newburns. Picture shows, I. to r., Edward, Roger and Francis E. Newburn.

The Newburns of Eagle Grove, Iowa, showed the British ambassador what real productivity is. One look at Iowa corn, hogs and soybeans and Sir Archibald John Clark-Kerr, that no nation on earth can rival the United States in agriculture. It all started when Roger Newburn, 21, met the ambassador in Washington on a student tour and got into a friendly argument. "Come out to the farm and see for yourself," invited Roger. Sir Archibald took him up on it, and spent three days with the Newburns. Picture shows, I. to r., Edward, Roger and Francis E. Newburn.

The Newburns of Eagle Grove, Iowa, showed the British ambassador what real productivity is. One look at Iowa corn, hogs and soybeans and Sir Archibald John Clark-Kerr, that no nation on earth can rival the United States in agriculture. It all started when Roger Newburn, 21, met the ambassador in Washington on a student tour and got into a friendly argument. "Come out to the farm and see for yourself," invited Roger. Sir Archibald took him up on it, and spent three days with the Newburns. Picture shows, I. to r., Edward, Roger and Francis E. Newburn.

TAKE MY WORD FOR IT!

By FRANK COLBY
But S. indicate—WNU Feature.

READER'S CORNER
Question: When I was a G. I. stationed in England, I was surprised to learn that the British speak of a musical 10th note as a "semiquaver." What kind of thing is that—W. H. L.
Answer: H. L. Mencken, in "The American Language," calls it "an archaic and unattractive nomenclature, long since abandoned over here." In Webster's New International dictionary, under NOTE, it is explained that a whole note is a "minim," a half note is a "crotchet," a quarter note is a "quaver," a 10th note is a "semiquaver," a 32nd note is a "demisemiquaver," a 64th note is a "hemidemisemiquaver," and a 128th note is a "quasidemisemiquaver." (The Composer, please hit the right keys!)

Kansas City: On the radio the word "finger" is frequently given as rhyming with "finger." What's the good word?—P. J. F.
Answer: These words should not have the hard "g"; bringer, clinger, finger, ringer, singer, stinger, springer, stringer, swinger, winger. I can think of but three "finger words" in which the "g" is hard: finger, linger, and malingering.

DAILY FORTUNE FINDER
To learn your "fortune" for today from the stars, write in the letters of the alphabet corresponding to the day of the week and the month of the year in which you were born. You will find it fun.

A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31

JAN 21 19 15 9 18 20 21 1 12 13 1 20 20 5 18 19
FEB 21 10 21 19 20 6 15 12 12 25 13 8 21 14 3 8
MAR 21 3 15 14 7 5 14 9 1 12 6 18 9 5 14 4 19
APR 21 5 22 5 14 9 14 7 6 15 18 6 18 15 12 9 3
MAY 21 13 9 14 7 12 5 23 9 20 8 16 5 15 16 12 5
JUN 21 6 9 14 1 14 3 9 1 12 2 1 3 11 9 14 7
JUL 21 1 14 5 23 5 18 20 1 25 9 19 6 15 21 14 4
AUG 21 3 21 12 13 9 14 1 20 9 15 14 14 5 1 18 19
SEP 21 1 10 15 25 15 19 6 15 18 6 14 9 7 8 20
OCT 21 1 16 12 1 14 9 19 5 6 5 6 3 20 9 22 5
NOV 21 20 1 11 5 20 8 9 14 7 12 9 7 8 20 12 25
DEC 21 5 14 5 18 7 25 9 14 3 18 5 1 19 9 14 7

Rising Wave of Crime in Germany Is Plaguing AMG
BERLIN.—American military government says the U. S. occupation zone of Germany is being plagued by a rising wave of crime, and gang lawlessness and violence is particularly heavy in Bavaria and Greater Hesse.

Both Germans and displaced persons have been among the offenders.

An AMG report said that in Greater Hesse there have been 8,309 reported violations, of which one-half were thefts. Of this number 28 per cent involved food.

The report added that in four incidents of gang lawlessness displaced persons were implicated.

In Bavaria, the report continued, "criminal activities of displaced persons constitute an important law and order problem." During one week there, 49 crimes involved displaced persons including four homicides.

March of Dimes Needed
Total of $15,980,000
NEW YORK.—National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis announced that the 1946 March of Dimes realized $15,980,000. Of the total, $8,184,593.80 went to the national headquarters for its program in research, education and emergency epidemic aid, and $7,795,406.20 went to local chapters for care and treatment of patients.

Russia agrees to consider modified use of veto
Rife follow post signing in Batavia.

Showed Ambassador What Iowa Land Can Do

The Newburns of Eagle Grove, Iowa, showed the British ambassador what real productivity is. One look at Iowa corn, hogs and soybeans and Sir Archibald John Clark-Kerr, that no nation on earth can rival the United States in agriculture. It all started when Roger Newburn, 21, met the ambassador in Washington on a student tour and got into a friendly argument. "Come out to the farm and see for yourself," invited Roger. Sir Archibald took him up on it, and spent three days with the Newburns. Picture shows, I. to r., Edward, Roger and Francis E. Newburn.

The Newburns of Eagle Grove, Iowa, showed the British ambassador what real productivity is. One look at Iowa corn, hogs and soybeans and Sir Archibald John Clark-Kerr, that no nation on earth can rival the United States in agriculture. It all started when Roger Newburn, 21, met the ambassador in Washington on a student tour and got into a friendly argument. "Come out to the farm and see for yourself," invited Roger. Sir Archibald took him up on it, and spent three days with the Newburns. Picture shows, I. to r., Edward, Roger and Francis E. Newburn.

The Newburns of Eagle Grove, Iowa, showed the British ambassador what real productivity is. One look at Iowa corn, hogs and soybeans and Sir Archibald John Clark-Kerr, that no nation on earth can rival the United States in agriculture. It all started when Roger Newburn, 21, met the ambassador in Washington on a student tour and got into a friendly argument. "Come out to the farm and see for yourself," invited Roger. Sir Archibald took him up on it, and spent three days with the Newburns. Picture shows, I. to r., Edward, Roger and Francis E. Newburn.

The Newburns of Eagle Grove, Iowa, showed the British ambassador what real productivity is. One look at Iowa corn, hogs and soybeans and Sir Archibald John Clark-Kerr, that no nation on earth can rival the United States in agriculture. It all started when Roger Newburn, 21, met the ambassador in Washington on a student tour and got into a friendly argument. "Come out to the farm and see for yourself," invited Roger. Sir Archibald took him up on it, and spent three days with the Newburns. Picture shows, I. to r., Edward, Roger and Francis E. Newburn.

The Newburns of Eagle Grove, Iowa, showed the British ambassador what real productivity is. One look at Iowa corn, hogs and soybeans and Sir Archibald John Clark-Kerr, that no nation on earth can rival the United States in agriculture. It all started when Roger Newburn, 21, met the ambassador in Washington on a student tour and got into a friendly argument. "Come out to the farm and see for yourself," invited Roger. Sir Archibald took him up on it, and spent three days with the Newburns. Picture shows, I. to r., Edward, Roger and Francis E. Newburn.

The Newburns of Eagle Grove, Iowa, showed the British ambassador what real productivity is. One look at Iowa corn, hogs and soybeans and Sir Archibald John Clark-Kerr, that no nation on earth can rival the United States in agriculture. It all started when Roger Newburn, 21, met the ambassador in Washington on a student tour and got into a friendly argument. "Come out to the farm and see for yourself," invited Roger. Sir Archibald took him up on it, and spent three days with the Newburns. Picture shows, I. to r., Edward, Roger and Francis E. Newburn.

The Newburns of Eagle Grove, Iowa, showed the British ambassador what real productivity is. One look at Iowa corn, hogs and soybeans and Sir Archibald John Clark-Kerr, that no nation on earth can rival the United States in agriculture. It all started when Roger Newburn, 21, met the ambassador in Washington on a student tour and got into a friendly argument. "Come out to the farm and see for yourself," invited Roger. Sir Archibald took him up on it, and spent three days with the Newburns. Picture shows, I. to r., Edward, Roger and Francis E. Newburn.

The Newburns of Eagle Grove, Iowa, showed the British ambassador what real productivity is. One look at Iowa corn, hogs and soybeans and Sir Archibald John Clark-Kerr, that no nation on earth can rival the United States in agriculture. It all started when Roger Newburn, 21, met the ambassador in Washington on a student tour and got into a friendly argument. "Come out to the farm and see for yourself," invited Roger. Sir Archibald took him up on it, and spent three days with the Newburns. Picture shows, I. to r., Edward, Roger and Francis E. Newburn.

The Newburns of Eagle Grove, Iowa, showed the British ambassador what real productivity is. One look at Iowa corn, hogs and soybeans and Sir Archibald John Clark-Kerr, that no nation on earth can rival the United States in agriculture. It all started when Roger Newburn, 21, met the ambassador in Washington on a student tour and got into a friendly argument. "Come out to the farm and see for yourself," invited Roger. Sir Archibald took him up on it, and spent three days with the Newburns. Picture shows, I. to r., Edward, Roger and Francis E. Newburn.

The Newburns of Eagle Grove, Iowa, showed the British ambassador what real productivity is. One look at Iowa corn, hogs and soybeans and Sir Archibald John Clark-Kerr, that no nation on earth can rival the United States in agriculture. It all started when Roger Newburn, 21, met the ambassador in Washington on a student tour and got into a friendly argument. "Come out to the farm and see for yourself," invited Roger. Sir Archibald took him up on it, and spent three days with the Newburns. Picture shows, I. to r., Edward, Roger and Francis E. Newburn.

Church Notes

LIBERT YBAPTIST CHURCH
Appomattox, Va.
The Rev. W. M. Black will preach at both the morning and evening services on Sunday November 24.

Appomattox Court House Presbyterian Church
J. H. Marzke, Minister
10 A. M. Sunday School
11 A. M. Morning Worship
"Tomorrow" will be the 10th anniversary of the church.

EVERGREEN BAPTIST CHURCH
Cecil G. Carter, Pastor
EVERGREEN
10:00 A. M. Sunday School
11:00 A. M. Morning Worship
6:30 P. M. Training Class
7:30 P. M. Evening Worship

Memorial Methodist Church
Sunday School, 9:45
Preaching Service, 11:00
There will be a Thanksgiving Service. We shall have a special program. The members of the church are invited. Youth Fellowship, 6:30. Sam Ferguson will lead. Preaching Service, 7:30.

IN MEMORIAM
In sad but loving memory of our dear Father, Mr. A. M. Wood, who departed this life on November 11, 1946. November brings sad memories of a loved one gone. We will never be forgotten. By the ones who loved him.

Where all tears are wiped away. One by one we are coming to greet you on that glorious day. There will be a glorious day. When we meet to get you.

The beautiful things you did live in our hearts every day. And keep you near us all. Though you have passed on. There's a face that is missed ever.

There's a voice that we miss. There's a smile that we miss. Though we try to forget you. —Sadly missed by his wife.

Three-way qualification for aimed at Senator Bils.

Widespread effect of a off cited by federal officials.

New car output reached post-war production.

New British jet liner flight.

Women and girls get wanted relief.

Cardui.

Cardui.

Cardui.

Cardui.

Cardui.

Cardui.

Cardui.

Cardui.

Cardui.

Cardui.

Cardui.

Stonewall

Stonewall, Nov. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Stratton have returned home from their vacation in Mississippi.

Our community was saddened last week by the death of a good man, Mr. Dave Carson. We extend to the family our deepest sympathy.

Misses Anne Carson and Mary Archer Caldwell spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Paulette at Drakes Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Paulette, also Mr. and Mrs. Sam J. Paulette and children, of Prospect, those calling Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Edd Moore, of Madisonville, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Evans and children, of Evergreen; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Paulette, and Dorothy Ann Paulette, of Appomattox.

Mr. and Mrs. Teyman Phelps, daughter visited Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harvey Sunday afternoon.

Miss Nell Wingfield was the supper guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harvey on Saturday night. Miss Marcia Harvey spent the weekend in the same home.

Mr. and Mrs. Teyman Phelps, daughter visited Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harvey Sunday afternoon.

Miss Nell Wingfield was the supper guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harvey on Saturday night. Miss Marcia Harvey spent the weekend in the same home.

Mr. and Mrs. Teyman Phelps, daughter visited Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harvey Sunday afternoon.

Miss Nell Wingfield was the supper guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harvey on Saturday night. Miss Marcia Harvey spent the weekend in the same home.

Mr. and Mrs. Teyman Phelps, daughter visited Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harvey Sunday afternoon.

Miss Nell Wingfield was the supper guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harvey on Saturday night. Miss Marcia Harvey spent the weekend in the same home.

Mr. and Mrs. Teyman Phelps, daughter visited Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harvey Sunday afternoon.

Miss Nell Wingfield was the supper guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harvey on Saturday night. Miss Marcia Harvey spent the weekend in the same home.

Mr. and Mrs. Teyman Phelps, daughter visited Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harvey Sunday afternoon.

Miss Nell Wingfield was the supper guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harvey on Saturday night. Miss Marcia Harvey spent the weekend in the same home.

Mr. and Mrs. Teyman Phelps, daughter visited Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harvey Sunday afternoon.

Miss Nell Wingfield was the supper guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harvey on Saturday night. Miss Marcia Harvey spent the weekend in the same home.

Mr. and Mrs. Teyman Phelps, daughter visited Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harvey Sunday afternoon.